1. Although the Chinese Communist Government is not sending any official delegate to the International Civil Aviation Conference to be held shortly in the United States, it will be able to rely on KONG Shing-shu, the Chinese Nationalist delegate, to represent its interests.

2. Pressure is being brought to bear on KONG to defect to the Chinese Communists and for him either to announce this openly at the conference or to continue to act ostensibly for the Chinese Nationalists while secretly furthering Chinese Communist interests.
